Dear Friends,

As Chairman, I am pleased to report that Your Community Foundation, Inc. (YCF) has had another growth year as an organization that not only represents the community but also works diligently to assist those individuals who want to be active contributors to improving the quality of life in North Central West Virginia.

The success of the Foundation would not be possible without the continued and ongoing support and dedication of the board. This representative group of business and community leaders from across North Central West Virginia brings their leadership and expertise to the organization and provides countless hours of service. They work with and develop strategies that best position the Foundation in achieving its mission and goals, and commit an endless desire and drive to make certain they are good stewards of the funds entrusted to them.

YCF now has managed funds of approximately $9 million and total assets of $9.8 million. Our grants and distributions for charitable purposes reached $664,673 in 2012. YCF’s growth is attributable to the increasing public awareness of YCF and the many contributions it is making to our community. As the name states, it is YOUR COMMUNITY FOUNDATION. Its success and impact on our region is entirely dependent upon YOU.

On behalf of the Board and all of the Foundation’s many beneficiaries, I want to thank the donors throughout the region who have had the vision and foresight to believe in the spirit and mission of the Foundation. As our name states, it is Your Community Foundation. It fosters, nourishes and supports YOUR community, YOUR programs, YOUR youth scholarships and YOUR future.

In 2013, we will be celebrating the Centennial Anniversary of the First Community Foundation, noting there are now more than 700 community foundations throughout the United States. YCF is a proud partner in this nationwide effort to give back to the community and secure our future with the promise and hope of investing in our youth as well as other significant and vibrant programs in our local communities.

Because this is a community foundation and it benefits your community, please consider contributing in one of the areas identified. Whether it is in the area of arts, recreation, education or other charitable service, your contribution can make a difference. Consider the creation of a fund in your family’s name targeted at a specific area within the community or endow a scholarship for students’ advancement in higher education in a targeted curriculum. Finally, you can also contribute to an existing fund and assist in its mission and goals and help further expand its growth and development. Large or small, YCF offers you the chance to participate in the growth of YOUR community.

I have enjoyed this first year serving as the Chairman of YCF. It is both an honor and a privilege. The board and staff and all of the volunteers have given so much of their time and energy to make YOUR COMMUNITY FOUNDATION the very best it can be. Their selfless efforts need to be applauded and I encourage anyone interested in becoming involved to do so today. Our strength is in the commitment to make our community not only our home but an area rich in culture, education and recreation.

My best regards,

Gerry Schmidt, Chair of YCF
Cecil Jarvis Scholarship Helps Define Law Student’s Career Path

While attending Harvard Law School, Laura-Kate Denny spent her summers in diverse places like Kolkata, India, working with victims of child sex trafficking, and Washington, D.C., helping federal prosecutors work on child pornography and child sexual exploitation trials. These career-shaping experiences were made possible because of a scholarship she received from Your Community Foundation.

“Attending law school is no small financial undertaking, especially for someone who hopes to spend her career in public service,” Laura says. “I stretched my student loans as much as I could over the course of my legal education, but receiving this scholarship allowed me to spend my law school summers working for organizations that were not able to pay me. It would have been a great struggle to be able to accept these jobs without the scholarship, and it was those experiences that really cemented my career aspirations.”

In 2010 and again in 2011, Laura was awarded the J. Cecil Jarvis Memorial Scholarship, created by the family of the well-known Clarksburg attorney and newspaper publisher to provide financial assistance to Harrison County students who are enrolled in postgraduate studies in law, medicine or journalism. Jarvis was also an avid marathon runner, cyclist and outdoorsman at the time of his death in a cycling accident in May 2007.

“When I received the Jarvis scholarship, I felt incredibly grateful,” Laura says. “I’m also humbled to receive a scholarship in memory of Cecil Jarvis. He was a great leader in the Clarksburg community where I grew up. I remember trying to catch up with his pack while running road races and seeing his family in church every Sunday. I hope that I can do justice to his memory and legacy through the career path that this scholarship has helped me to pursue.”

Laura graduated from Harvard in 2012. She has worked as an editor at Business Wire, was a legal intern at the International Justice Mission and held positions in the Civil Rights and Criminal divisions of the U.S. Department of Justice. She now works in Washington, D.C., as a law clerk at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces.

“It’s a two-year clerkship and I have one year left,” she says. “After this clerkship, I hope to get back into the business of justice for children. It’s hard to predict where exactly I’ll be or what exactly I’ll be doing, but my dream is to commit my career to working for real justice for children and others who have been exploited, abused and silenced. My goal is to use my law degree, in whatever way I can, to fight for a better future for our children.”

The Jarvis scholarship and her legal education have taken Laura to a lot of interesting places, and she is hard-pressed say which one was the most rewarding.

“This is a really hard question,” she says. “Working in India was an excellent experience. There, I assisted attorneys in petitioning the courts to protect the best interests of child victims of sex trafficking and forced prostitution. This work is heart-wrenching, but it’s incredibly inspiring to be surrounded by people who are fighting to change the world for these children, and to eradicate the scourge of sex crimes.

“I also spent a month in Ghana working with a team of law and public health students to assess the availability of health care in Northern Ghana. It’s been pretty incredible to work with driven, engaged and exciting people all over the world. I’ve definitely learned that the world is a very small place. None of us is immune to human rights abuses, but all of us can work to make the world a better place.”

THE LATE CECIL JARVIS
fund your Passion
When Cassidy Seamon was in the third grade, she had a cousin who was ill and in the hospital at Christmas time. She asked her mother Doreen if Santa could take the gifts intended for her and deliver them instead to other children who had to be in the hospital over Christmas.

“So my mom and I went shopping,” Cassidy says. “We bought some toys and some clothing items and we took them to Children’s Hospital on Christmas Day. I can still remember giving a teddy bear to a little girl and seeing how happy she was. It was a special experience for me.”

When she turned 16, Cassidy decided she wanted to do something to make a bigger impact for the children at the hospital, so her mother introduced her to YCF President Beth Fuller and together they started The Little Toy Train Endowment Fund. “I met with Beth during that summer,” she says. “She told me we could set up a foundation and showed me how it could be self-sustaining so it would continue on after I go away to college and even after that.”

“Beth was so good with Cassidy,” her mother says. “She talked to her like she was an adult and told her how to organize a fund that would raise money to perpetuate the hospital toy donations.”

Cassidy got the Little Toy Train Fund off the ground with her first fund-raising event the following spring, followed in the fall by a competition between University and Morgantown high schools. Volunteers placed mason jars in all of the classrooms and the students donated money toward the fund, in addition to asking friends and family to contribute. The homeroom class at each school that raised the most money received gift cards donated by Naticakes frozen yogurt shop in Morgantown.

Each school raised about $1,200, and outside contributions brought the total to around $7,000 – enough money to start the endowment and donate $1,000 worth of Christmas toys to the hospital. “We got a list from the hospital of the things they needed, like board games, video games and arts and crafts supplies,” Cassidy says. “We were able to get everything on the list.” The gifts were delivered by Cassidy and other students from the two high schools, along with some family members including Cassidy’s cousin, who is still being treated for a medical condition.

“This year, we’re going to have the school drive again, probably in September and October,” says Cassidy, who is beginning her senior year at UHS. “We also want to raise more money by selling some school gear like sweatshirts, t-shirts and hats, and we’ll still be asking for outside donations. Our goal is to raise more money than last year so we can fully fund the endowment and still have enough money to buy the gifts.” She is also thinking about staging a golf tournament or a charity walk next summer to keep building up the fund.

Cassidy said she got the name of the fund from a Christmas song, “Old Toy Trains,” which her family always sang around Christmas time. “She always loved that song and decided to use it to name her fund,” Doreen says. It goes like this:

Old toy trains, little toy tracks
Little toy drums coming from a sack
Carried by a man dressed in white and red
Little boy, don’t you think it’s time you were in bed?

Close your eyes
Listen to the skies
All is calm, all is well
Soon you’ll hear Kris Kringle and the jingle bells.

Conservancy Turns Former Rail Corridor Into Opportunity Trail

From the late 1880s until well into the 20th Century, some of the region’s busiest highways were the railroad lines that carried coal and coke, glass, sand, limestone and other resources from North Central West Virginia to markets around the United States. One such rail line, the Fairmont, Morgantown and Pittsburgh Railroad, completed in 1886, was nicknamed the “Sheepskin” by disgruntled sheep herders as trains rumbling along the tracks often scattered their flocks for miles.

Today, the legacy of early coal mining, quarrying and railroading has been relegated to local museums and antique shops, while the route those goods traveled is now serving a new purpose as the Mon River/Caperton/Deckers Creek Trail System. Purchased from CSX Railroad in 1996, the one-time railroad corridor is now managed by the Mon River Trails Conservancy (MRTC) for public, non-motorized recreation including bicycling, walking, jogging, in-line skating and cross-country skiing.

An endowment fund managed by Your Community Foundations helps to support MRTC, with net income from the fund applied toward maintenance and development of the trails. “We are working with MRTC to build a fund that will help support the conservancy’s mission long into the future,” says YCF President Beth Fuller. “This is important because MRTC is a non-profit 501(c)3 volunteer organization and it costs a lot of money to manage roughly 50 miles of trail.”

A rail-trail is essentially a long, linear park that creates opportunities for recreation, alternative transportation, tourism, economic development, historic preservation, healthy lifestyles and environmental conservation, says Ella Belling, MRTC executive director. “Rail-trails also serve as wildlife conservation corridors, linking isolated parks and creating greenways through developed areas,” she says. “Through innovative collaboration with community partners, government officials and a diverse corps of volunteers, these trail corridors are being transformed from industrial wastelands into national examples of economic and environmental renewal.”

To date, more than $2 million in Transportation Enhancement and Recreational Trail funds have been invested in the purchase and construction of this trail system. These funds have been augmented by business and community donations, but upkeep is costly, and MRTC continues to seek donations to help cover the maintenance cost of the trail system. “The most difficult challenge we face is the need for capital investment in the long-term costs of the rail-trail,” Ella says. “It costs $7,600 per mile for resurfacing outside of city limits, while asphalt resurfacing costs $60,000 per mile, she said.

MRTC sponsors the Deckers Creek Trail Half Marathon held each year in early June. The race begins in Masontown, Preston County, and finishes at the Hazel Ruby McQuain Riverfront Park in Morgantown. This year marked the 13th running of the event. MRTC is undertaking a number of trail amenity projects, including restoration of the historic Elkins Coal and Coke Building in Masontown and the addition of a shelter near Little Falls in Monongalia County. The conservancy is currently working with Fayette County National Road Corridor to connect the Mon River Trail system with the Sheepskin Trail in Pennsylvania. Under an initiative called “The Power of 32,” designed to encourage regions to work together for community development, the organization is part of a mapping and development plan for connecting rail-trails in a four-state, 32-county region. The project has the support of the Benedum Foundation, which encourages economic development on a regional scale.

United Way-Foundation Partnership Works Toward Common Goal

It’s been said that the United Way serves as a local community’s checkbook, funding programs and services that meet critical needs in our community every day, while a community foundation is its savings account, receiving and investing money for the long-term future.

Often, the two organizations work together with the common mission to improve the quality of life for the citizens of the areas they serve. So it is with endowment funds established through Your Community Foundation by the United Way agencies in Monongalia, Preston and Harrison counties.

An agency endowment is a type of designated fund established by a charity at a community foundation for the charity’s own benefit or the benefit of a related entity. That is, the donor and the recipient organization are the same entity. In the case of the United Way of Harrison County, the goal was to create an endowment that would perpetually fund four programs that are separate from the annual campaign fund drive.

“The United Way of Harrison County and Your Community Foundation are committed to improving the quality of life for our community,” Director Marie Battles says. “While the United Way will continue to focus our annual campaigns to address immediate needs within the county, this partnership assures that we are also looking beyond the present and ensuring a long-term commitment to our citizens.”

The United Way of Harrison County established four separate endowment funds through YCF:

- An Operating Endowment Fund, which will help cover the agency’s operating expenses and consequently increase contributions to annual campaigns. The goal is to eventually allocate 100 percent of the funds raised in the community to the agencies that do the charitable work.
- A Campaign Endowment whose assets are invested and net income is contributed back to the annual United Way campaign.
- The Harrison County Cancer Association Fund, which supports programs and services addressing the needs of cancer victims in Harrison County.
- A Leadership Development Endowment Fund, which supports leadership development opportunities for United Way volunteers.

The United Way of Monongalia and Preston Counties created an endowment to raise, receive and distribute funds while evaluating community needs and planning for long-range organizational needs.

“The United Way and Your Community Foundation serve as two principal stewards of philanthropy in the Greater Morgantown area,” says Executive Director Brandi Helms. “We are both community based and share a goal of fostering the spirit of philanthropy and volunteerism in the local community. We both provide vital resources for valuable and needed community programs, and our relationship enables us to carry out our respective missions – both for today and in the future.”

Beth Fuller, YCF president, says agency endowments are an excellent vehicle for charitable organizations to look beyond the day-to-day community needs and establish a long-term funding source. “We hope that other agencies in our region will look at the models established by our United Way donors and take advantage of the services we can provide through our foundation,” she says.

In 1993, as part of the Vision 2000 initiative, a proposal was offered to develop a top-quality retirement community in the greater Morgantown area. A citizen committee was formed to develop the concept and secure a site and developer, and in November 1997, the Mon Health System stepped forward to sponsor the project. Two years later, The Village at Heritage Point opened its doors.

The Village at Heritage Point is a not-for-profit retirement community offering an independent lifestyle for senior adults ages 62 and older. Located adjacent to Monongalia General Hospital in Morgantown, The Village is convenient to the cultural, educational and sporting events of Morgantown, as well as the natural splendor of unspoiled woodland.

“We are a thriving community where individuality is respected and residents, employees and visitors are warmly welcomed,” says Daphne Schreiber, executive director. “Our mission is to be the senior living community of choice in Monongalia County, where the respect, trust and friendship of our residents is earned every day.”

As a non-profit facility, The Village operates as a self-supporting subsidiary of Mon Health System. Resident fees cover the cost of operation, but on occasion, residents and other donors make contributions for specific projects at the facility. For that reason, in 2010, The Village took a long-term approach by starting two funds managed by Your Community Foundation.

“We were looking for an avenue to allow our residents and others to donate to The Village in an efficient way,” Daphne says. “For example, we had an individual who wanted to create a garden on the site, so we created a fund with YCF. The donor gave us the money and it went into this fund, and then YCF used these donated funds to cover the costs of the garden, with additional money set aside for future upkeep.” A second, general fund was established to accept contributions not designated for a specific project.

“Now we are able to tell residents and others who are interested in funding projects or other causes that they can simply instruct us to set up a fund and we can take care of everything through that mechanism,” Daphne says. “If we need to solicit contributions, as we do on occasion, we have the account established with YCF, and they have the process in place to help us build the fund.”

The Village at Heritage Point is affiliated with Monongalia General Hospital, the area’s premier community-based health care provider for more than 50 years. As a continuing care community, The Village offers 90 maintenance-free residential living apartments and The Suites at Heritage Point that include 40 residential care (similar to assisted living) apartments. In addition, all residents have access to country club style amenities, activities and wellness programs, and a generous service package including meals, housekeeping, transportation and more.

“Our vision is to provide quality, cost-effective senior living services in a beautifully appointed environment that allows a gracious and healthy lifestyle, while encouraging continued independence,” Daphne says. “We are committed to independence, dignity, security and peace of mind for each of our residents. Our management staff has more than 63 years of combined service, and every day provides each of us with countless opportunities to make a difference in the lives of those who live and work here. We are proud of our community, the memories we have and the future we are creating together.”

fund your Passion
Your Community Foundation is one of more than 700 community foundations and trusts nationwide. They are the fastest growing sector of philanthropy in the U.S. As a community foundation, YCF offers our donors a number of advantages.

PERMANENCE
Your gifts create a lasting legacy which will keep giving forever to the charitable causes that you determine. The endowments administered by YCF’s Board of Directors will continue in perpetuity. Should the intended purpose of a fund become obsolete, the Board retains the authority to amend provisions of the fund to see that it continues to meet needs relevant to your interests.

COMMEMORATION
Your name or the name of a loved one can live on through your fund, while serving the charitable purposes that honor yours or their life’s work.

 STEWARDSHIP
YCF’s Board of Directors, with guidance from its Investment Committee, closely monitors the performance of professional investment managers. The Foundation makes a full accounting to the community through this annual report which is certified by independent auditors.

 YCF is also governed in compliance with National Standards for U.S. Community Foundations. This assures the integrity and credibility of Your Community Foundation.

 Finally, all Foundation documents, including our Federal Tax Form 990 and governance, are available to the public upon request.

GRANTMAKING EXPERTISE
YCF is knowledgeable about needs and opportunities in North Central West Virginia and can assist you in identifying charitable organizations and programs that are addressing your particular interests.

In addition, Your Community Foundation is a member of the national Council on Foundations, West Virginia Grantmakers Association and Leave A Legacy. These organizations provide invaluable information to support the needs of our donors and address the opportunities that exist in the North Central West Virginia region.
The funds listed below represent the passions of more than 100 individuals, families and organizations in the North Central West Virginia region. They comprise a pooled investment of 9 million dollars in assets – forming together a trust or commitment that together they can achieve more for the public good, and for the long-term success and stability of their favored organization or cause. YCF becomes facilitator and friend. We affect positive change everyday serving as a conduit for investment growth, grantmaking and donations that turn the dreams of a community into reality.

YCF provides a variety of funds to meet both donor and community needs. You may choose to express a lifelong commitment to a particular charitable field and support that interest in perpetuity. Perhaps you have a specific charity or charities in mind to receive income from your gift or fund. Or, you may favor an unrestricted gift, allowing the Foundation to determine where needs and opportunities are greatest in the community. You and possibly your family may choose to be actively involved as advisors to the fund. These choices or a combination of these choices are available to you through Your Community Foundation.

Most funds are permanent endowments, but some allow distribution of principal. Each is tailored to the needs and interests of the donor and reaches into the community in its own unique way. You can name your own fund or you can contribute, in any amount, to an open fund of YCF.

AGENCY ENDOWMENT FUND income helps non-profit organizations meet the daily costs of doing charitable business. Local non-profit organizations may wish to invest their monies with YCF which assumes reporting and investing responsibilities for the non-profit organization.

DONOR ADVISED FUNDS allow the donor to actively participate in the grantmaking process by recommending to the YCF Board from time to time the purpose and/or organization(s) that might receive the available grant dollars from the fund. Donors can involve their children as advisors to perpetuate a family tradition of philanthropy. Donor Advised Funds offer concerned donors a flexible way to address their charitable interests as they change over time.

DONOR DESIGNATED FUNDS enable donors, at the time the fund is established, to name one or more organizations to benefit from the fund permanently. The Foundation ensures that the designated recipients(s) receive support as long as they remain in existence and continue to fulfill the intended charitable purpose.

FIELD OF INTEREST FUNDS enable the donor to address an area or issue about which he or she feels strongly and that is of particular importance to the community. Fields of interest may include, but are not limited to, arts, the environment, women’s services, education, youth services, religion or health care. Within the specific area established by the donor or YCF itself, the Field of Interest Fund may grow through gifts from others who see them as a way to address their own charitable interests. Under the direction of the YCF Board of Directors, grantmaking addresses the specific area identified by the fund.

NON-PERMANENT AND PASS-THROUGH FUNDS are given to the YCF with the understanding that the entire principal will be distributed to charitable purposes. The recipients are designated by the donor. These funds remain available on a cash basis to provide specific support (for example, capital projects or event programming) for a defined period of time.

SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS are established to assist students with the pursuit of education. Donors may select eligibility requirements and can designate funds for any level of education. Distributions are made in accordance with YCF policies providing funds to the specific institution in which the student is enrolled with verification of that institution. In addition, grants may also be awarded to educational institutions directly.

UNRESTRICTED FUNDS are those donated without stipulations or conditions; they allow YCF maximum flexibility to respond creatively and effectively to our communities’ most compelling needs and opportunities. These funds are among the Foundation’s most important assets to address long-term community planning. Grantmaking from the fund is at the discretion of the YCF Board of Directors within the bounds of the educational, scientific and general charitable purposes of the Foundation.

BEQUEST BY WILL
Including a charitable bequest in your will is a simple way to make a lasting gift to your community. When you make this gift through Your Community Foundation, we establish a special fund that benefits the community forever and becomes your personal legacy of giving.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR’S REPORT

To the Board of
Your Community Foundation, Inc.
Morgantown, WV 26505

I have audited the accompanying financial statements of Your Community Foundation, Inc. (a not-for-profit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2012, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management’s Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor’s Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit. I conducted my audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity’s preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity’s internal control. Accordingly, I express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

Opinion

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Your Community Foundation, Inc. as of December 31, 2012, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Description of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

1. ORGANIZATION

Your Community Foundation, Inc. (Foundation) was incorporated under the laws of the state of West Virginia as a not-for-profit corporation in January 2011. The Foundation was established as a community foundation to administer and invest donor funds and to assist in matching community resources with community needs. The Foundation aims to assist donors in achieving their charitable intentions through the establishment of funds and endowments that provide resources to enhance the quality of life for communities located in north central West Virginia. The Foundation’s major sources of revenue and support include administrative fees charged for managing donor funds, local city and county grants, and rental income.

SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting
The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting as contemplated by generally accepted accounting principles, and accordingly, reflect all significant receivables, payables, and other liabilities.

Basis of Presentation
The Foundation’s financial statement presentation follows the recommendations of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Codification Section 958.205 Not-for-Profit Entities Presentation of Financial Statements (ASC 958.205). Under ASC 958.205, the Foundation is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets based on the existence or absence of donor restrictions. The Foundation’s net assets and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Unrestricted net assets: represent resources whose use is not limited or restricted by donors.

Board restricted net assets: represent net assets not limited or restricted by donors, but restricted by the board for the purpose of assuring long-term stability and sustainability, while allowing for planning and implementation of longer term initiatives.

Temporarily restricted net assets: represent resources whose use is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that either expire by the passage of time or can be fulfilled or otherwise removed by the organization’s actions.

Permanently restricted net assets: represent resources whose use is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that neither expire or can be fulfilled or otherwise removed by the organization’s actions.

Additionally, the Foundation follows FASB Codification Section 958.605 Not-for-Profit Entities Revenue Recognition (ASC 958.605). In accordance with ASC 958.605, contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted depending on the existence or nature of donor restrictions.

The Foundation possesses variance power, that is, the unilateral right to remove donor-imposed restrictions upon a gift in response to changed circumstances. This power is exercisable only in narrowly defined circumstances. Because this power is incorporated by reference in all gift instruments (fund agreements) accepted by the Foundation, the Foundation views its variance power as an explicit expression of donor intent.

The Foundation recognizes that gifts received may be subject to one or more of three types of donor-imposed restrictions: (1) contributions received with restrictions as to purpose (“purpose restriction”); (2) contributions received with a requirement that the principal of the gift be retained for a specified period of time (“time restriction”); (3) contributions received with a requirement that the principal of the gift be retained permanently (“endowment restriction”). The Foundation has determined its variance power applies to all three types of restrictions; however, the Foundation classifies gifts subject to one or more donor-imposed restrictions as temporarily restricted net assets until amounts are appropriated for use or spending, at which time the assets are reclassified as unrestricted net assets.

Endowments
Net asset classification
The Foundation follows FASB Codification Section 958.205 Not-for-Profit Financial Statement Disclosure and its guidance on net asset classifications and disclosures for endowment funds.

The Foundation has determined that its variance power applies to all three types of restrictions; however, those gifts subject to endowment restrictions have been deemed to constitute endowments funds under the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act as enacted by the state of West Virginia.

In 2008, West Virginia enacted a version of the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (WV UPMIFA), the provisions of which apply to endowment funds existing on or established after the date of enactment. For the purposes of these financial statements, the Foundation defines an endowment fund as a fund established with the donor understanding that the principal or stated part thereof is not wholly expendable by the Foundation on a current basis. Furthermore, the Foundation has interpreted WV UPMIFA as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original donation as of the donation date absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of the Foundation's interpretation of UPMIFA, the Foundation classifies as temporarily restricted net assets the original value of the resources donated to the endowment fund and designated therein as endowment principal to be kept intact. The remaining portion of the endowment is also classified as temporarily restricted net assets until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Foundation in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by WV UPMIFA. Amounts appropriated for spending are classified as unrestricted net assets.

In accordance with WV UPMIFA, the Foundation considers the following factors in making the determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

• The duration and preservation of the fund;
• The purpose(s) of the donor-restricted endowment fund in conjunction with the Foundation's not-for-profit status;
• General economic conditions;
• The possible effect of inflation and deflation;
• The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments;
• Other resources of the Foundation;
• The investment policies of the Foundation.

Endowment Investment Policies
The Foundation's primary investment objective is the preservation of capital in real dollar terms. Providing a predictable, stable stream of income for grant-making and operating needs, and providing for fund growth are secondary objectives. The investment committee (Committee) is responsible for recommending specific investment policies and objectives for the Foundation endowments, funds, and other Foundation accounts to the Board of Directors (Board). The Committee generally expects the investment to approximate a 60/40 blend of the S&P 500 and the Barclays Aggregate Index, respectively over a three to five year market cycle. Average net return on investment should approximate widely used comparison indices as they pertain to each asset allocation class. Endowment assets are considered as two parts: an “equity fund” and a “fixed income fund”; furthermore, the endowment will be diversified both by the asset class and within asset classes. Moreover, the equity fund will allocate to managers who have distinct and complementary investment styles.

Endowment Spending Policies
The Foundation spending policy was adopted to provide a meaningful and growing payout from the endowment funds of the Foundation while preserving the value of the Foundation's assets on an inflation-adjusted basis. The spending policy's objective is to have a total draw down of no more than a predetermined percentage set by the board (5% at December 31, 2012), of a trailing 12-quarter average of the market value of each individual endowment fund. The Foundation recognizes that certain circumstances may call for a different base and/or percentage to be used. In such instances the President of the Board, after consultation with the Committee, may adjust the base and/or percentage used for grant distribution.

Contributions
Unconditional promises to give are recognized as revenue and included in receivables in the period the promise is given. Such unconditional promises to give are recorded at net realizable value if expected to be collected in one year and at fair value if expected to be collected in more than one year.
Contributions of long-lived assets are reported as unrestricted support unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets must be used. Contributions of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used, and gifts of cash or other assets that must be used to acquire long-lived assets are reported as restricted support. Absent explicit donor stipulations regarding how those long-lived assets are to be used, expirations of donor restrictions are reported when the donated or acquired long-lived assets are placed in service.

Cash and Cash Equivalents Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash in checking accounts held in several local financial institutions. The Foundation considers all highly liquid investments with a remaining maturity date of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents held by investment managers in investment accounts are considered investments for the purposes of the cash flow statement. Cash and cash equivalents held outside of investment accounts associated with temporarily restricted contributions are included in cash and cash equivalents, while any uninvested permanently restricted cash balances held outside of investment accounts are reported as part of long-term assets, and not included in cash and cash equivalents for cash flow statement purposes.
Donated Services
In accordance with ASC 955.605, donated services are recognized as contributions if the services (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are performed by people with those skills, and would otherwise be purchased by the Foundation. For the year ending December 31, 2012 no services were received that met the criteria for recognition as donated services.

Property and Equipment
Purchases of property and equipment are capitalized at cost. Donated assets are capitalized at the estimated fair value at the date of receipt. The Foundation capitalizes purchased or donated property and equipment based on an assessment of the individual asset’s useful life and cost or fair value. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, ranging from 5 - 40 years. Non-capital expenditures for repairs and maintenance are charged to expense in the year the expense is incurred.

Income Taxes
For Federal tax purposes the Foundation is an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and was determined not to be a private foundation by the Internal Revenue Service; however, the Foundation remains subject to tax on any business income unrelated to its tax-exempt purpose.

The Foundation follows FASB Codification Section 740 Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes (ASC 740). This guidance provides a recognition threshold and measurement process for uncertain tax positions, including any estimated penalties and interest associated with those uncertain tax positions. For the year ended December 31, 2012 there were no uncertain tax positions requiring accrual.

The Foundation’s Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax for the years ending December 31, 2009 through 2012 are open to audit by the Internal Revenue Service.

Investments
The Foundation follows FASB Codification Section 958.320 Not-for-Profit Entities Investments (ASC 958.320). Under ASC 958.320, investments in mutual funds with readily determinable fair values are reported at their fair values in the statement of financial position, and unrealized gains and losses are recorded as an increase or decrease in unrestricted net assets unless their use is temporarily or permanently restricted by explicit donor stipulations. Accordingly, the Foundation has presented investments in such marketable securities and debt securities at their fair value in the statement of financial position. Realized and unrealized gains and losses are included in the accompanying statement of activities.

Uncollectible Pledges and Accounts Receivable
An allowance for uncollectible pledges and accounts receivable may be established based on the Foundation’s understanding of the source and nature of the underlying pledges and accounts receivable and historical collection results.

Functional Expenses
The costs of providing program and supporting activities have been presented on a functional basis in the statement of functional expenses, and are summarized in the statement of activities. Expenses are charged to program or supporting activities as incurred, or are allocated using a statistical basis.

Advertising Expense
The Foundation expenses advertising costs in the period incurred.

Fair Value Measurements
FASB Codification Section 825 (ASC 825) Financial Instruments permits an entity to elect fair value as the initial and subsequent measurement attribute for certain financial statement assets and liabilities. Entities electing the fair value option would be required to recognize changes in fair value earnings. The adjustment to reflect the difference between fair value and the carrying amount is accounted for as cumulative effect adjustment to net assets as of the date of the adoption. The adoption of this pronouncement did not have an effect on the Foundation’s financial statements. The Foundation did not elect the fair value methodology permitted under ASC 825 for any financial instrument or other item that is not currently required to be measured at fair value. FASB Codification Section 820 (ASC 820) Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. Under ASC 820, various inputs are used in determining the fair value of assets and liabilities. These inputs are summarized in a hierarchy that segregates fair value measurement in three levels (levels 1, 2, and 3), determined by the nature of input as follows:

- Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities. An active market is a market in which transactions occur with sufficient frequency and volume to provide pricing information on an ongoing basis. A quoted market price in an active market provides the most reliable evidence of fair value.
- Level 2 – Other significant observable inputs, including quoted prices of similar securities in active markets, quoted prices for identical securities in markets that are not active, and other market-corroborated inputs.
Level 3 – Significant unobservable inputs, including the Foundation’s own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments, based on the best information available in the circumstances.

Valuation levels are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities. The adoption of ASC 820 did not have a significant impact on the Foundation’s financial statements. The fair value of the Foundation’s assets and liabilities approximate their carrying amounts due to the short-term or Level 1 nature of these instruments. All Foundation assets and liabilities are determined using Level 1 inputs.

Estimates
The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of any contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements. Such estimates also affect the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results may differ from these estimates.

3. CONCENTRATION OF RISK
The Foundation maintains its cash accounts in financial institutions located in West Virginia. The balances are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000. The Foundation’s cash balances at various times throughout the year may be in excess of amounts insured; however, the Foundation monitors its cash balances thereby mitigating its exposure to concentrations of credit risk. Foundation assets are invested in publicly traded mutual funds, corporate stocks, and bond issues which are affected by market conditions.

4. ACCRUED COMPENSATED ABSENCES
In accordance with FASB Codification Section 710 Compensation, amounts accrued for future absences include amounts that are attributable to the employees’ services already rendered, and only amounts that may be carried forward to periods subsequent to that in which they were earned. The Foundation does not provide for carry forward of unused compensated absences, accordingly, no amounts for compensated absences were included in these financial statements.

5. PLEDGES RECEIVABLE
Pledges receivable are recorded at present value of the expected future cash flows. All pledges are due currently; however, the Foundation established a $12,870 allowance uncollectible pledges based on an analysis of the individual pledges.

6. INVESTMENTS
The majority of individual fund and foundation assets are invested jointly in a pooled account, with each foundation or fund’s beneficial interest in the pooled account determined using the “units of participation” method based on the fair value of the underlying assets.

Investments were comprised of the following at December 31, 2012:

Interest and dividend income is recorded when earned. Realized gains and losses are recorded as the difference between historical cost and fair value when an investment is sold. Unrealized gains and losses are recorded as the change in fair value of investments. For the year ended December 31, 2012, investment return and classification in the statement of activities are summarized as follows:

7. LEASE PAYABLE
In April 2008, the Monongalia County Building Commission issued lease revenue bonds (Series 2008 Bonds) to finance the costs not otherwise provided for the acquisition, construction, and equipping of recreational facilities (Project) located adjacent to the new University High School in Morgantown, WV. Seven local banks were designated as the initial purchasers of the Series 2008 Bonds.
In April 2008, and in conjunction with the Series 2008 Bonds issue, the Board of Education of the County of Monongalia leased the Project grounds to the Monongalia County Building Commission for $1.00 as full consideration for the lease.

Further, in April 2008, The Monongalia County Building Commission subleased the Project grounds to the Greater Morgantown Community Foundation (merged with the Foundation in 2011). The terms of this sublease required the Foundation to pay base rents equal to, but only from monies received from donations made specifically for the Project, the principal and interest required to be paid under the Series 2008 Bond issuance. The lease was to expire in 2013, or a sooner or later date as the Series 2008 Bonds have been paid in full.

In March 2012, the Foundation facilitated a loan from a local bank to redeem the Series 2008 Bonds in full. This loan is not a general obligation of the Foundation. The Foundation has not offered any security for the loan, and is “only obligated to forward the proceeds from any funds raised through the UHS Athletics Complex Project to extinguish the debt”. In April 2012, the Monongalia County Board of Education (MCBOE) issued a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) agreeing to make 4 annual payments of $50,000, subject to the MCBOE’s limitations on binding any future year’s budget, in connection with this loan.

The Foundation carries a liability account, Loan Payable, to report the remaining liability due under the loan agreement, but only in so much as the Loan Payable balance equals the remaining principal balance of the loan. The interest portion pursuant to the loan agreement, and paid only through funds received for this purpose, is expensed when paid as interest expense.

The loan agreement specifies a 5-year term with interest at 3.5%, payable in quarterly installments beginning June 2012, with the principal balance due in March 2017. The balance of this loan at December 31, 2012 is $434,153, and is reported as a non-current liability in these financial statements.

8. ENDOWMENT FUNDS

The Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) defines an endowment as “an established fund of cash, securities, or other assets to provide income for the maintenance of a not-for-profit organization. The use of the assets may be permanently restricted, temporarily restricted, or unrestricted.”

For the purposes of these financial statements, the Foundation has expanded this definition to include other organizations or individuals who have established funds dedicated to building funds for perpetuity. Beginning endowment fund balance has been restated to conform with the change in accounting policy (see Note 13). Endowment funds by net asset classification and changes therein for the year ended December 31, 2012 are reflected below.

10. AGENCY ENDOWMENTS

In accordance with FASB Codification Section 958.605 Transfers of Assets to a Not-for-Profit Entity (ASC 958.605), when the Foundation accepts funds from a not-for-profit entity that specifies itself as the recipient of those funds (Agency Endowments), such funds are not included as a component of Foundation net assets. These Agency Endowments, held for the benefit of the transferring not-for-profit entity are reported as liabilities and included with investments on the Foundation’s statement of financial position.
Agency endowments consist of the following funds, carried at fair value, at December 31, 2012:

- United Way of Monongalia and Preston County Fund $205,244
- United Way of Harrison County Cancer Fund 140,549
- United Way of Harrison County Annual Campaign Fund 70,831
- Mountain Heart Fund 18,959
- United Way of Harrison County Moslander/Woods Leadership Fund 18,173
- United Way of Harrison County Operating Fund 11,835
- Monongalia Valley Greenspace Coalition Fund 10,742
- Morgantown Public Library System Fund 9,783
- Bartlett House Endowment Fund 6,061
- Monongalia River Trails Conservancy Fund 3,688
- Empty Bowls Endowment 3,017
- Morgantown Theatre Company Fund 2,022
- Red Cross Builders Fund 1,132

Total endowments: $502,036

11. LEASE (AS LESSOR)

The Trust entered into a one year lease agreement with an unrelated third party for office space. Rental income related to this agreement was $12,250 for year ending December 31, 2012. Expected minimum lease payments under this agreement are $10,200 for year ending December 31, 2012.

Additionally, the Trust entered into a lease agreement with an unrelated third party, terminating June 31, 2015. Rental income related to this agreement was approximately $15,312 for year ending December 31, 2012. Expected minimum lease payments under this agreement are $15,000 for year ending December 31, 2013.

12. RETIREMENT PLAN

The Foundation sponsors a savings incentive match plan for employees of small employers (SIMPLE Plan) under Section 408(p) of the Internal Revenue Code. Employees who are reasonably expected to receive $5,000 in compensation for a calendar year are eligible to participate in the SIMPLE Plan. The Foundation makes matching contributions equal to each eligible participating employee's salary reduction contribution, up to a limit of 3% of the employee's total compensation for the year. There were no contributions for year ended December 31, 2012.

13. CHANGE IN ACCOUNTING POLICY

The Foundation has made an adjustment to its 2011 net assets as a result of a change in accounting policy with respect to its variance power on endowment restrictions. In 2011, the Foundation classified funds with endowment restrictions requiring the preservation of principal as permanently restricted net assets. Further consideration of the Foundation’s variance power and its incorporation by reference in all fund agreements indicates that the variance power applies to all such restrictions.

Net assets for the year ended December 31, 2011 have been restated to reflect this change. The following table presents the cumulative effect on the change in net assets for each net asset class as a result of this change.

14. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

FASB Codification Section 855 Subsequent Events (ASC 855) establishes general accounting for and disclosures of events that occur after the balance sheet date but before financial statements are issued or available to be issued. ASC 855 requires the disclosure of the date through which an entity has evaluated subsequent events and the basis for that date. In preparing these financial statements, the Foundation has evaluated transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through August 14, 2013, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. During this period no material subsequent events were noted that require recognition or disclosure under ASC 855.

Please e-mail to ycf@ycfwv.org or call 304-296-3433. Additional financial information including the IRS Form 990 and our most recent audit are kept on file in our office at 111 High Street, Morgantown, WV 26505 and online at www.ycfwv.org.

To Apply for a Grant or Scholarship:
Grant applications are reviewed on an annual basis. Application deadline is March 31st. Please inquire as to deadlines on individual scholarships. Grant and scholarship applications are available upon request from our office or online at www.ycfwv.org.

To Make a Gift or Set Up a Grantmaking Fund:
Call or check the website for further information to set up a grantmaking fund or for assistance in selecting an asset for your gift. YCF accepts checks which may be made payable to a specific fund or to Your Community Foundation, Inc. Mail your donation to P.O. Box 409, Morgantown, WV 26507.

Credit card donations are accepted online at www.ycfwv.org. From the menu click on “Donate” and type in the fund to receive your donation after credit card information is entered.
